TYLER HENSHAW
SUCCUMBS TO FEVER

Relapse Follows Night
That Gave Promise of His Recovery
From Typhoid

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Tyler Henshaw, son of State Supreme Justice F. W. Henshaw, and a young attorney of prominence, died from typhoid fever at St. Mary's Hospital at 12:15 this afternoon. Henshaw, who was only recently married, was stricken about three weeks ago. He was removed to St. Mary's Hospital, where, during his illness his wife has been constantly at his side.

Yesterday the patient seemed better and it was announced that his physicians believed the crisis had passed. Last night he grew worse and today his father and mother and his brothers were summoned and told that the end was near. With the family surrounding him he passed away quietly.

Cut off in the flower of his manhood and at the beginning of a promising career before the bar of California, Henshaw had a future before him. A year ago he was admitted to practice law, and last month wedded Miss Irene Patricia O'Connor of Oakland. The couple had just returned from their honeymoon when the young attorney was stricken. He was forced to relinquish his work at the office of his uncle, Tyler Henshaw, and was removed to a hospital, where two physicians carefully attended him and did everything possible to save him.

Henshaw is survived by his widow, his mother and father, and his three brothers, Stanley, Frederick and Steven. He was 25 years old and was born in Oakland. He graduated from the University of California, where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Afterward he studied at the University of Chicago and the Harvard law school. His young widow is broken down with grief, and wearied and exhausted from the long nights of watching.

NASHVILLE POLICE GUARD CAPITOL

Bloodshed Feared by Legislators; Governor Acts

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 25.—Every policeman on the Nashville force was sent to Capitol Hill today to guard against violence in the Tennessee house. Trouble was anticipated when Speaker Stanton attempted to call the legislators to order at 11 o'clock. Mayor Howse appeared personally in charge of the policemen. He said that if rioting broke out and the police could not handle the situation he would call on the governor for troops to prevent bloodshed.

A killing was narrowly averted yesterday, when Speaker Stanton arbitrarily adjourned the house because he feared some one would shoot from the gallery into the crowd of legislators discussing measures for the enforcement of prohibition laws. His action nearly cost his own life.

Several men trained their revolvers on the speaker's stand. He was escorted from the chamber and after the adjournment Representative A. L. Todd addressed the members of the house and the men in the gallery, urging that peace be maintained.

Speaker Stanton today issued a statement in which he explained his action in adjourning the house without waiting for a vote. He said:

"I know—I had been told—that members of the house were on the floor armed. The house was in the wildest turmoil and disorder. In the gallery to my right there were sentry-like guards acting in a threatening manner, while near them with guns drawn were John Yeaman and a man named Garrett. These two men were near pillars where they could pick me and anyone else off. Feeling that men's lives were in danger, I adjourned the house, as any presiding officer should have done."

Glass Dials Arrive For City Hall Clock

The eight-foot glass dial to protect the huge clock that will be placed in the city hall tower have arrived, and the workmen started to hoist the glass to the tower height. Each of the glass dials, over an inch in diameter, is being installed under the contract for glass and windows let to the W. P. Fuller Company contract, but the mechanism of the clock will be let in a separate contract, and the mechanism will not be installed for many months to come.

Valuable Laces Recov-

Leaves Ship

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Wholesale robbery of the mails on the steamer City of Sydney, as well as an attempt to smuggle valuable laces into this port, were uncovered through the arrest of three members of the crew today. Those taken into custody are Wilfred Whorton of 650½ Third street, third cook; Rafael Zuniga, a mess boy, and J. Barasas, a coal-passenger.

The trio, together with others on board who have not yet been arrested, are alleged to have made their way into the mail room and rifled the parcel post bags of everything they could lay their hands on. Packagings bearing the seals of the French government were torn open, their contents scattered about, and some of the valuables carried away. The capture was made as a result of the vigilance of Custom Inspector W. H. Deasy. He was standing near the gang plank of the City of Sydney when a colored man, coming off the vessel.

ACTS SUSPICIOUSLY.

The negro acted suspiciously. He seemed to be wearing too much clothing, and was searched. Wound around his body were found precious laces of great value. These he said he purchased, but after he had been put through a sweating process he declared he had stolen them from the cook. His revelations resulted in the arrest of the other two men and it was found that the coal piled up close to where the mail sacks set had burst through a door, allowing the men access to a package from which they had no difficulty in getting the letters and packages.

"We believe that many more are mixed up in this affair," declared Surveyor of the Port Wardell this morning. "I am going to take the matter up with the postoffice authorities, but we have not yet decided whether we will prosecute the men now under arrest for smuggling or for rifling the mails."

Schooner Iaqua Damaged, But Is Finally Saved

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—The steam schooner Iaqua, Captain Self, struck a rock near Sausalito Landing, two miles south of Point Arena, at an early hour this morning. The vessel was considerably damaged and distress signals were hoisted.

The look-out of the marine exchange at Point Arena learned of the accident and investigated. It was found that a passing steamer had taken the Iaqua safely off and would have cleared from this port last night for Coos Bay and carried only twelve passengers. As near as could be learned, none was injured.

The Iaqua is owned by the Eastern Redwood Company and plies between Los Angeles ports and northern Pacific waters, making a call here.

The Union Oil Company's barge Simla, which went ashore yesterday at Point Gorda was floated early this morning by the steamers Nan Smith and Adeline Smith, and is being repaired. Each of the glass dials, over an inch in diameter, is being installed under the contract for glass and windows let to the W. P. Fuller Company contract, but the mechanism of the clock will be let in a separate contract, and the mechanism will not be installed for many months to come.

'LOST 80 POUNDS?
MALICIOUS LIE!'
SAYS PROF. TAFT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Former President William Howard Taft, in the capacity of a private citizen, today urged Secretary McAdoo to give New Haven, Conn., the former president's adopted home, a marble postoffice.

When complimented on the fact that he appeared in splendid health, the former president laughed and said:

"The report that I have lost 80 pounds is a malicious lie. It was only 60."

Later Mr. Taft called on President Wilson.

THREE CHILDREN NOT

Sisters of Mrs. M. D. G.
Tyson Say Tots Were
Her Own

Charges made recently by sisters of Mrs. Minnie Dahl Gilmore Tyson that children she claimed to have been foundlings were in reality the offspring of Mrs. Tyson and her husband, Mitchel Tyson, the wealthy pilot and shipowner, were investigated this afternoon by the grand jury following a lengthy inquiry into the matter by District Attorney Hynes.

Mitchel Tyson divorced his wife on December 9 last. During the trial Mrs. Tyson testified that she had taken three foundlings and pawned them off on her husband as their own children. Other testimony supporting Mrs. Tyson in her claim was given at the same time and it was not until after Mrs. Tyson was examined as to her sanity and sent to Agnews Asylum on September 4 last that her sisters appeared in court and stated that Mrs. Tyson had told an untrue in denying the parentage and offered to prove the contentions of the matter was then taken up by the district attorney for an investigation.

During the divorce trial, there was strong testimony given which tended to support Mrs. Tyson's statement of the manner in which she had misled her husband and cognizance of the circumstance was taken by the court.

SISTERS SUMMONED.

Following Mrs. Tyson's sensational act at suicide by attempting to rush into the estuary at the foot of Broadway on September 4 last, her sisters were summoned into court at the examination as to her sanity. It was there that they imparted information

MICHAEL SULLIVAN HELD UP AT SEA

Oakland Man Has Very Strenuous Time Trying to Board Ship

QUEENSTOWN, Ireland, Sept. 25.—The White Star steamer Olympic today followed the example of the big Cunard liners and shunned Queenstown harbor. A commotion that stirred the whole city followed.

Two hundred passengers, mostly Americans, and 1500 sacks of mail were waiting here for the Olympic. Officials of the line expected them sent out on tenders to be transferred to the liner.

The tenders provided were antiquated boats, which pitched and tossed, and by the time they got outside the harbor the skippers declared that the sea was too dangerous for them to venture out. The liner had cleared from this port last night for Coos Bay and carried only twelve passengers. As near as could be learned, none was injured.

The Iaqua is owned by the Eastern Redwood Company and plies between Los Angeles ports and northern Pacific waters, making a call here.

An indignation meeting was held on the pier. Ex-Senator William A. Clark took the chair and resolution was passed by Justice Colahan of New York and seconded by Michael Sullivan of Oakland, Cal., was adopted, vigorously protesting against the failure of the liner to enter the port.

Caught in a heavy tide rip off Point Bonita, just outside the Golden Gate, the steam schooner Pomo, bound for San Francisco from Albion on the Mendocino coast, was hustled about today so roughly that her stays parted so she lost overboard 25 tons of grain, many boxes of butter and some of the baggage of her passengers.

The dials are included under the contract for glass and windows let to the W. P. Fuller Company contract, but the mechanism of the clock will be let in a separate contract, and the mechanism will not be installed for many months to come.

Famed Giant Baseman
Is Signed for Head of 1914 Team

President Leavitt Makes
Announcement; Mitze
May Be Catcher

Arthur Devlin, famous Giant third baseman, has been purchased from the Boston Nationals and will be the playing manager for the 1914 Oaks.

This announcement was made at noon today by President Frank W.

Leavitt, who returned from the east where he has been negotiating for

"I am happy to state," said Leavitt, "that I have signed Devlin, and that he will arrive here about the first of October. I believe that we have made a ten-strike in our selection."

The choice for manager lay either between George Stovall of St. Louis or Arthur Devlin, as was stated by THE TRIBUNE only a few days ago. Leavitt had under consideration at one time, as many as twenty baseball leaders, but the final selection simmered down to these two.

The new manager of the Oaks is 31 years old, and married. He obtained national fame under McGraw and was a member of one of the greatest infields ever developed. From McGraw, he went to the Boston Nationals.

Devlin can play any position on the infield. Last season he played 2 games at third, 21 at short, and over 60 as first baseman. The club contemplations using his active services Mitze, Leavitt said that when he left St. Louis, it was with the understanding that Mitze had been drafted.

"If the draft has been canceled," said Leavitt today, "we will respect Mitze's wishes. If he would prefer to go to some other club, we will put no obstacle in his path; if he wishes to remain with us as catcher, I assure we will be very glad to have him."

FAILS TO DEFEND SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Capt. C. Dudley, U. S. A.,
Permits Wife to Take
Default

That Captain Clark DeWitt Dudley, U. S. A., retired, and member of a well known San Francisco family, will not contest the divorce suit filed against him recently by his wife, Margaret Henderson Dudley, was indicated today when the plaintiff took a default against the captain in the Superior Court. The case will probably be referred to the court commissioner for the taking of testimony in support of Mrs. Dudley's allegations of cruelty.

Mrs. Dudley, who is the daughter of John H. Henderson, a wealthy mining man living at 2655 Wakefield street, charged that her husband had been "pernicious" with her in spite of the fact that he had an income of several hundred dollars per month.

She said that once he suggested that she might have someone else who loved her and whom she could marry in the event that she got a divorce.

"You know that you have sufficient grounds," Captain Dudley is declared to have told his wife in speaking of the divorce question.

Prior to their separation last June, the Dudleys resided at 245 Alvarado Street in the fashionable Claremont District. When they parted Mrs. Dudley went to the home of her parents and her husband crossed to San Francisco where he is well known and where he is now said to reside. He was formerly stationed at the Presidio.

Colonel Murphy was present and when to the surprise of the defense Leavitt called Mrs. Merriam, the colonel took the seat he had vacated.

IS ON THE DANCE COMMITTEE OF

SH SCHOOL.

No School Dance Ragging Barred at M. T. and C. High

FACULTY'S FOOT HAS COME DOWN

There Are Other Ways of Gaining Physical Culture

The Tango may be artistic, and the bunny hug may be a thing of aesthetic beauty—as well as an efficient means of achieving physical culture—beneath—but they have nothing to do with higher education, it has been locally decreed. On the Manual Training and Commercial High School dances planned to be held during this term, the broad faculty foot has come jump down. "No ragging" is the dictum of faculty and student committees, and we be to the student who, in gilding over the polished floors of Maple Hall, allows his shoulders to circle or to the maid who kicks her little tootsies too high.

The student and faculty committees arranging the dances have already laid plans. The students include W. Stevenson, chairman, Miss Aurelia and Lesley Sanders, Miss Hazel Graham, Miss Anna Street and Jessie Elkus, who has been appointed to assist the faculty committee in their work. The faculty committee of last term, been appointed for this term also, are N. O. Shively, chairman, Miss M. S. Skinner and Mrs. R. M. Hobue.

Miss Hazel Worsnop who will help in managing the dances this term is at present private secretary to principal P. M. Fisher and she has for many terms been actively connected with the school dances.

The dates for this term will be held on the following dates: Shirtwaist dance, October 3, 1912; the second dance, informal, November 7, 1912; the senior farewell, December 5, 1912. All the dances are to be held at Maple Hall on Friday evenings.

ELKUS GAVE $300.

Abram Elkus then testified that he had known William Sulzer for about twenty years. He identified a copy of a letter he had written Sulzer, offering congratulations as follows:

"I know congratulations are very pleasant and very nice, but a campaign to be successfully conducted requires something more than words, and so I am enclosing my check for $500 to aid in the expenses of your campaign."

Stanchfield then produced the governor's letter in reply. It was very brief. It thanked Mr. Elkus "many, many times," and said, "I appreciate every word you say and all you have done."

"I suppose" announced Stanchfield, "it did not escape your notice that in the reply there was no accompanying of the receipt or check."

Marshall objected.

"Objection sustained," ruled the presiding judge.

DEBATE FOLLOWS.

Cross-examined by Marshall the witness was queried as to his intent in making the gift. Stanchfield objected. This precipitated a wrangle in which judges and senators joined.

"I have grave doubts," said Judge Hiscott, "as to the admission of that evidence, but I have no objection to admitting it if we reserve the right to decide the question at the end of the trial."

Senator Brown objected that "one violation leads to another." And suggested that the vote be taken at once. Marshall then withdrew his question. Stanchfield objected to the withdrawal and made a plea for immediate decision.

The wrangle finally was closed by the presiding judge, who said he would look further into the law on the matter.

ELKUS WAS THEN EXCUSED WITHOUT HAVING ANSWERED THE QUESTION. W. H. FLOOD, president of the Mutual Alliance Trust Company, who took the stand after Elkus had been excused, was questioned concerning the account of Louis A. Sarecky, Governor Sulzer's campaign secretary. The account, the witness said, was opened in August, 1912, with a deposit of $400. Between October 1 and December 31 the total deposits amounted to $16,000. The balance on December 31 was $439. One of the deposits was the Schiff check for $2500.

FAIL TO LOCATE SARECKY.

Attorney Stanchfield announced that counsel for the managers had tried unsuccessfully to locate Sarecky. He thought where he was, and he asked that Judge Herrick inform him as to the whereabouts of Sarecky and of Fred L. Colwell.

My information is that the managers made no effort to find Mr. Sarecky," replied Herrick. "He has been in this city and has advertised his whereabouts. We expect to have him here as a witness. I don't know where Colwell is whereabouts, but we expect him also as a witness."

"Will you endeavor to have them here by tomorrow or Monday?" asked Stanchfield.

"On that I will confer with my associates," replied Herrick.

BOY BURGLAR IS CAUGHT BY POLICE

San Francisco Woman Given Fright, But Doesn't Lose Head.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Emulating a dime novel hero and with flashlight pointed at the face of a sleeping victim, and with revolver upraised, James Huskisson, a 17-year-old knight of the road, was captured this morning after he had terrified Mrs. Walter Miller, wife of the night clerk of the Gilsey hotel, 433 Ellis street.

The boy, minus his shoes, had entered Mrs. Miller's apartment with a jackknife and was crouching along on his hands and knees, casting a shaft of light about the place with his pocket flash, when the woman, frightened by the sparation, screamed in terror.

The would-be burglar beat a hasty retreat and a moment later Mrs. Miller followed and excitedly told her experience to her husband. The latter summoned Patrolman Frank Cummings, who forced his way into Huskisson's room, to find the lad shamming sleep but almost fully dressed. The flashlight was concealed nearby and the pistol, an expensive weapon, fully loaded, was under his pillow. Cummings had learned of the gun and was taking no chances. He had the boy covered with his own revolver. Without hesitation Huskisson admitted having been in Mrs. Miller's room.

"I went in there by mistake. It's habit I have," explained the youngster, who looks even younger than his years and has seemed but little perturbed by his arrest. "I was caught by the police in another man's room in St. Louis but it was a mistake, I let me go."

Huskisson comes from Owensboro, Kentucky. He arrived here last Tuesday from Denver and registered at the Gilsey. He could not explain to the police what he was doing in the west. He has no means of livelihood, and had but $22 when taken into custody. He said that for years he had been travelling about the country.

Wild west fiction and tales of dare-devil deeds are thought to have activated the lad in what the police say was an evident attempt at robbery. He even had his picture taken with the pistol poised in his hand and his desire to imitate the heroes of the penny weeklies seems evident.

He was locked up at the Detention Home in等待 until an investigation can be made.

DISMISS MALFEASANCE CHARGES AGAINST BOARD

MARION, Ark., Sept. 25.—Indictments returned by the Crittenden county grand jury last week charging O. N. Killough, president of the St. Francis Levee Board of Arkansas, with embezzlement and other malfeasance in office were held to be without merit by circuit judge J. D. Driver yesterday, and the charges were dismissed. It was shown that $1000, board here was alleged to have misappropriated was devoted to the paying of the expenses of a committee which went to Washington in the interest of a federal levee appropriation, and that such expenditure had been duly authorized.

Marshall objected.

"Objection sustained," ruled the presiding judge.

BUCHTEL COLLEGE NOW UNIVERSITY OF AKRON

AKRON, O., Sept. 25.—Buchtel college became the University of Akron today with the institution will be turned over to the city authorities. university.

CRIPPLED MAN STEALS TO GET MEAL

Edward Haight Commits Petty Crime to Bring Plight to Notice.

Injured Two Years Ago and is Unable to Earn a Living.

Unable to find work on account of an injury received two years ago, Edward Haight, an aged man, caused himself to be arrested on a petty charge in order authorities.

"I am old and out of work," Haight explained, when his case came up this morning. "I have been refused assistance and I got myself into trouble to get a square meal in prison."

Haight's hip was crushed by an overturning steam shovel two years ago. He has asked to be taken to the County Infirmary. The man stole a bridle valued at a small sum and was arrested. Captain Arron has asked that the man be cared for by the County Infirmary.

PIKE PEAK'S STOP IN TOURING AUTO

Rocky Mountain Region Folks Startled by Fear of Studebaker.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

We will pause here a moment, ladies and gentlemen, to allow you to contemplate the sight of a lifetime—an automobile making the ascent of the peak."

Thus spoke the "speler" on the cog railroad that scales Pike Peak to a delegation of touring Knights Templars and their wives. The car, a long, rakish Studebaker "six" of the touring model and carrying five men, had already passed the timber line that marks an elevation of 11,700 feet and was engaged in a battle with the bare granite mountainside which was in many places, as steep as the roof of a house. Its course was an alternate series of rushes, punctuated by pauses, when the crew piled out and rolled big rocks out of the way or filled gullies in the trail which had been abandoned more than ten years ago on the completion of the railroad.

Swirls of cloud occasionally hid the car from the view of the excited watchers. Intermittent blotsches of rain blotted it from sight again and again. But always, when the air cleared, the car came into view, nearer its goal at the summit. The last 1000 feet of the climb the rain changed to snow, which added further difficulty to a task often pronounced impossible.

The cog train dashed for the summit and its passengers waded through the snow to the top of the old trail and gazed down toward the invisible world, more than 14,000 feet below, listening intently. Their wait was short. From almost beneath their feet came the hum of a powerful motor, doing the bidding of its driver who was calling on it for all it had. In a cloud of snow flying from all four wheels and bounding over the great rocks which everywhere served the trail, the car finally leaped the steep gradient at the top and, with cheering crew, pulled up on the little plateau beside the government road.

The Knights Templar and their ladies echoed their cheers and snapped their cameras. The climb was history. The coast downward was made with perfect ease.

Throughout the Rocky mountain region the exploit now furnishes the most fertile subject of conversation in motoring circles.

The car was driven to the timber line by C. W. Hubert of Denver. He was relieved on the final dash by W. W. Beeson, now manager for the Studebaker branch in Atlanta.

KISSEL GETS THERE.

Plowing through soft dirt and sand and over mountainous grades, where no automobile had ever ventured, a Kisselekar has reached Camp Bonita in the Sierras. Camp Bonita lies at the junction of the San Gabriel River and Cattle Canyon Creek, and has been reached before this by mule drawn vehicles. W. K. Burch of Lodi, Cal., was the enterprising driver of the Kisselekar and he reports that while the "going" was not particularly joyful, he pulled through without mishap and with both himself and the car intact.

CUYLER LEE RETURNS.

Additional orders for Packard trucks just placed by the Standard Oil Company make a total of twenty-two Packards in the service of this concern. The new equipment, consisting of standard chassis equipped with tank bodies, is to be used in Seattle and San Francisco, according to Cuyler Lee, the Packard dealer here, who has just returned home after a three weeks' visit to the big Detroit plant, where he attended the annual dealers' convention.

DR. EWER ON TYPHOID.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: There is a rumor about that Oakland is experiencing an epidemic of typhoid fever. The records of this office show that 12 cases have been reported in September, 1912. The years 1911 and 1912 show, respectively 16 and 19 cases, so the situation is not unusual. July, August and September are the typhoid months for Oakland. Each case reported is carefully investigated by the physician who has found that at least two-thirds of the individuals afflicted had at the time of receiving the infection been absent from Oakland.

That this is the condition in other cities of the State is indicated by the number recently having camped and others on outing trips by the State Board of Health.

This was necessitated by the carelessness of these persons in drinking unboiled water from streams and other wells. Most of the mountain streams may be, and frequently are, polluted by

Resolved, That we commend to the church an ardent interest in the mental, moral and spiritual education of our youth. We recommend such contact with the public school system as shall secure suitable moral and ethical surroundings and the teachings for our boys and girls.

We deplore certain tendencies toward and religious training and toward social dissipation now prevalent in our public schools, and call upon the boards of education of the big cities to protect the moral and spiritual aspirations of the youth under their charge.

Whereas, We greatly deplore the fact that all the states have a Sunday law save alone California and Arizona, and whereas, the almost universal non-observance of the Sabbath day in our own state is a menace to our young people and a hindrance to all real progress;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the San Francisco Baptist Association now in session do earnestly pray means be used to bring about a Sunday rest day law in our state.

Mrs. J. A. Sutherland presided at the woman's missionary meeting, which was held this afternoon, when Mrs. M. WEAVES STOCKING INTO RONE: HANES HIMSELF

PORLTAND, Ore., Sept. 25.—By weaving her stocking into a rone, Miss Christine Schirmer, an inmate of the Eastern Asylum at Salem, committed suicide today by hanging herself. She fastened one end of the stocking to a window guard and slipping the noose over her head, stepped into the room. Commercial Effect of Tariff Changes.

San Francisco has received consignments of fresh meat from and fresh beef is being shipped to New York from yet the price of meat continues to soar. The price of continues to rise in the face of the clause in the putting all food animals on the free list. While we are fresh meat from Argentina and Australia and cattle from Mexico, the beef barons of Chicago are exporting meat to Europe and selling it abroad cheaper than it at home. Yet they wanted the duty on meat and aimed to protect the farmers and stockmen!

Hides were placed upon the free list by the Payne-Aldrich meat packers said it would compel the farmers to money for their cattle. The shoe manufacturers said

NEWS ITEM—Professor Washburn of University of California in a recent lecture declared that today's so-called extremes of fashion were equaled, if not outdone, by the styles prevalent among the ancients.

The Panama Canal and Prosperity.

M. Buneau-Varilla, the eminent engineer who was in charge of the Panama canal for the French company whose rights were purchased by the United States, prophesies that the lock system will be found inadequate in a few years. In two decades he says it will be necessary to make the canal a sea-level waterway. He estimates that $100,000,000 will cover the cost of making the change.

If M. Buneau-Varilla is correct in estimating the growth of traffic through the canal, the change he predicts will be welcome and the money required to make it well spent. He says the traffic passing through the canal will aggregate 50,000,000 tons annually in twenty years. It will be practically impossible to handle such an enormous volume of traffic with locks. Moreover, the increasing size of ships will necessitate larger locks and a greater depth of water in the canal, and he thinks all future problems can be solved by converting the canal into a sea-level channel or strait. He has always been in favor of a sea-level canal, and regards the lock system as but a step toward the ultimate goal.

If his predictions prove correct, the canal could have no greater significance. If the volume of traffic should reach anything like 50,000,000 tons annually the canal will be a profitable investment viewed as a commercial enterprise. A traffic so enormous will mean extraordinary growth and prosperity on the Pacific coast. San Francisco bay will be the seat of a commerce equaling that of the greatest ports of the world. It will be the scene of a marine activity equal to anything on the globe. Traffic through the canal will be the barometer of trade on the Pacific coast and of San Francisco bay in particular. Every port on the Pacific coast will share in the commercial benefits, but this bay will be the great central marine emporium on the western side of the continent.

Oakland will be an equal sharer with San Francisco in the commercial growth predicted by M. Buneau-Varilla. Everything that goes in and out of the Golden Gate benefits Oakland and adds to its commercial importance.

Dockage facilities will have to be provided on this side of the bay to relieve congestion on the peninsula side. San Francisco will perceive that her own interests require the development of the eastern shore and cease to look with a jealous eye on the creation of port facilities by Oakland. A common prosperity and a common interest will impel the two cities to work together and not against each other. There is enough for both, and to spare for our neighbors.

A correspondent in Stockton writes to say that THE TRIBUNE erred in saying that John Lothrop Motley was Minister to England during the civil war period. He is right. We acknowledge the error. The error was inexcusable because it was due to pure carelessness. Mr. Motley was not appointed minister to the court of St. James till 1869. Charles Francis Adams was the American envoy to Great Britain during Lincoln's administration. Mr. Motley was minister to Austria-Hungary from 1861 to 1867. While this in no sense negatives the proposition THE TRIBUNE was advancing—namely, that literary men have usually acquitted themselves well as diplomats—the fact remains that too little attention is paid to historical accuracy in editorial writing. If a writer were called down every time he blunders by making careless off-hand statements more regard would be paid to accuracy in editorial writing. An editorial writer has no moral right to make erroneous statements in a way that is likely to mislead others. Correction makes writers break up and give more reflection to what they write.

HISTORY OF TEA

The earliest record of tea being mentioned by an Englishman was probably that contained in a letter from Mr. Wickham, an agent of the East India Company, written from Flushing, in Japan, on June 27, 1615, to another officer of the company, resident at Macao, in the south of China, asking him for "a pot of the best sort of chaw." It was not until the middle of that century that the English began to use tea, they received their supplies from Java until 1688, when they were driven out by the Dutch. —London Globe.

I had spent the afternoon there and intended to take a night train back to Liberal. A bunch of us were sitting on the front porch of the Commercial hotel when I saw a headlight looming up down the track. I made a rush for my grips and yelled at the boy to get his car and take em over to the depot quick. I didn't wait for his answer, but ran over to the depot and rushed up to the window and demanded a ticket for Liberal.

"How's this?" I said to the agent. "I thought this train wasn't due for an hour, and here she is not a mile away."

"Mister," he replied, "you better go back to the hotel and buy cigars for that bunch. This is your first trip down here, ain't it? Well, I thought so. RATIFY STATE ROAD SURVEYS Advisory Board of Engineers Takes Action on Big Highways.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 25.—Three surveys ordered by the California highway commission were ratified yesterday by the state engineering advisory board as follows:

Section of ten and a half acres between county and Riverside city, section of 5 1/2 miles through Garberville, Humboldt county; section of eight miles between Forsythe creek and Ridgewood in Mendocino county. Upon the completion of the surveys bids will be called for an each project.

The bid of Riverside Portland Cement Company to supply an aggregate total of 46,210 barrels of cement at prices ranging from $1.55 to $2.10 was awarded. It was announced today that arrangements had been practically made for the board of control to buy $600,000 worth of highway bonds in the near future. Four million dollars worth of the securities have now been sold out of the original issue of $18,000,000.

MURPHY PROFITED ON TIP GIVEN BY SULZER

SEATTLE, Sept. 25.—Charles P. Murphy of New York has struck it rich at Cape Prince of Wales, Alaska, a point less than eighty miles from the coast of Siberia. The stamp mill which was erected on the 11 miles at that point in 1904 was placed in operation and at a paying basis for the first time this summer, and is now producing heavily.

The success of Murphy's mines is notable, for it was Governor William Sulzer of New York who brought the opportunity for investment in the venture to the attention of the Tammany boss, who is now trying to drive him from office under impeachment proceedings.

The news that the stamp mill has been started was brought to Seattle from Nome by H. H. Guff, a Nome merchant, who reached the city yesterday for the purpose of arranging for the construction of two new stores at Juneau.

The tin mines on Cape Prince of Wales were discovered by William Bartels, who went to New York to finance the projected development of the property. There he met Sulzer, who became convinced of the worth of the project, and took Bartels to his then friend, Murphy, who raised $10,000 and acquired controlling interest in the property.

DIDN'T SIGN NAME.

Mrs. Agnes A. Mills was arraigned in the police court yesterday morning on a charge of violating the city ordinance providing that guests must register their true names in hotels and lodging houses. She pleaded not guilty.

FINE SHOW OF FARM PRODUCTS COUNTY FAIR DRAWS CROWDS

PLEASANTON, Sept. 25.—The pride of Alameda county in stock farm products and poultry were in review before admiring crowds yesterday, the opening day of Alameda county's second annual county fair. Agricultural Alameda responded nobly to the demand made upon it to testify that the county is one of the most productive in the state, and the show of products of the soil, fat healthy cattle, strong workhorses, and sheep, and pigs suggested a land of plenty. Every animal in the roomy stalls and pens was in the pink of condition, and the most experienced farmers said they had never seen a better display for quality.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 25.—Three surveys ordered by the California highway commission were ratified yesterday by the state engineering advisory board as follows:

Section of ten and a half acres between county and Riverside city, section of 5 1/2 miles through Garberville, Humboldt county; section of eight miles between Forsythe creek and Ridgewood in Mendocino county. Upon the completion of the surveys bids will be called for an each project.

The bid of Riverside Portland Cement Company to supply an aggregate total of 46,210 barrels of cement at prices ranging from $1.55 to $2.10 was awarded. It was announced today that arrangements had been practically made for the board of control to buy $600,000 worth of highway bonds in the near future. Four million dollars worth of the securities have now been sold out of the original issue of $18,000,000.

MURPHY PROFITED ON TIP GIVEN BY SULZER

SEATTLE, Sept. 25.—Charles P. Murphy of New York has struck it rich at Cape Prince of Wales, Alaska, a point less than eighty miles from the coast of Siberia. The stamp mill which was erected on the 11 miles at that point in 1904 was placed in operation and at a paying basis for the first time this summer, and is now producing heavily.

The success of Murphy's mines is notable, for it was Governor William Sulzer of New York who brought the opportunity for investment in the venture to the attention of the Tammany boss, who is now trying to drive him from office under impeachment proceedings.

The news that the stamp mill has been started was brought to Seattle from Nome by H. H. Guff, a Nome merchant, who reached the city yesterday for the purpose of arranging for the construction of two new stores at Juneau.

The tin mines on Cape Prince of Wales were discovered by William Bartels, who went to New York to finance the projected development of the property. There he met Sulzer, who became convinced of the worth of the project, and took Bartels to his then friend, Murphy, who raised $10,000 and acquired controlling interest in the property.

DIDN'T SIGN NAME.

Mrs. Agnes A. Mills was arraigned in the police court yesterday morning on a charge of violating the city ordinance providing that guests must register their true names in hotels and lodging houses. She pleaded not guilty.

DOUBLE OF ELLIS, ALIAS BROKAW, MYSTIFIES POLICE
SUSPECT IS DESERTER OF NAVY OF NAVY

Not Murderer Wanted for Indianapolis Crime

Has Police Record in Los Angeles as Joseph Ellis

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—There was some doubt today in the minds of the detective bureau that Joseph Ellis, the man sought by the police of Pittsburgh, Louisville and Indianapolis for a series of hotel robberies committed last Monday night in the murder of Joseph Schlesky, a second-hand clothes dealer, is now in the city jail here booked as Fred Brokaw.

At the same time, it seemed to be established that though Ellis and Brokaw are the same person, the man sought is not the man wanted in Indianapolis. The murderer has a remarkable likeness to Ellis or Brokaw—a likeness so complete and striking that a photograph of Brokaw sent out by the Pittsburgh police in circular form and which he admits to be his portrait, has been positively identified by a woman who believed she had married him and a man who believed himself to be the murderer's father. The fainer swerved and the woman tried to commit suicide when shown the circular. Yet Brokaw was arrested here on the day the Indianapolis murder was committed, and he is able to account for his movements satisfactorily for the time before the arrest. The detective bureau is forced to conclude that the case is one of the most remarkable double identities ever brought to their knowledge.

ADmits DESERTING NAVY.

Brokaw denies that he is Ellis, but the evidence gives him the lie. Admitting that he deserted from the navy in 1909 and was arrested in Los Angeles he was asked today, on receipt of a dispatch from Los Angeles telling of the arrest there in 1909 of Joseph Ellis, alias Fred Brokaw, to give the date of his arrest. At first he was unwilling.

"I think it was November 26, 1909."

"And the charge was obtaining money under false pretenses."

"It was something about money," admitted Brokaw. Yesterday he said he was arrested in Los Angeles as a deserter. He was shown the dispatch.

FATHER IN SPOKANE.

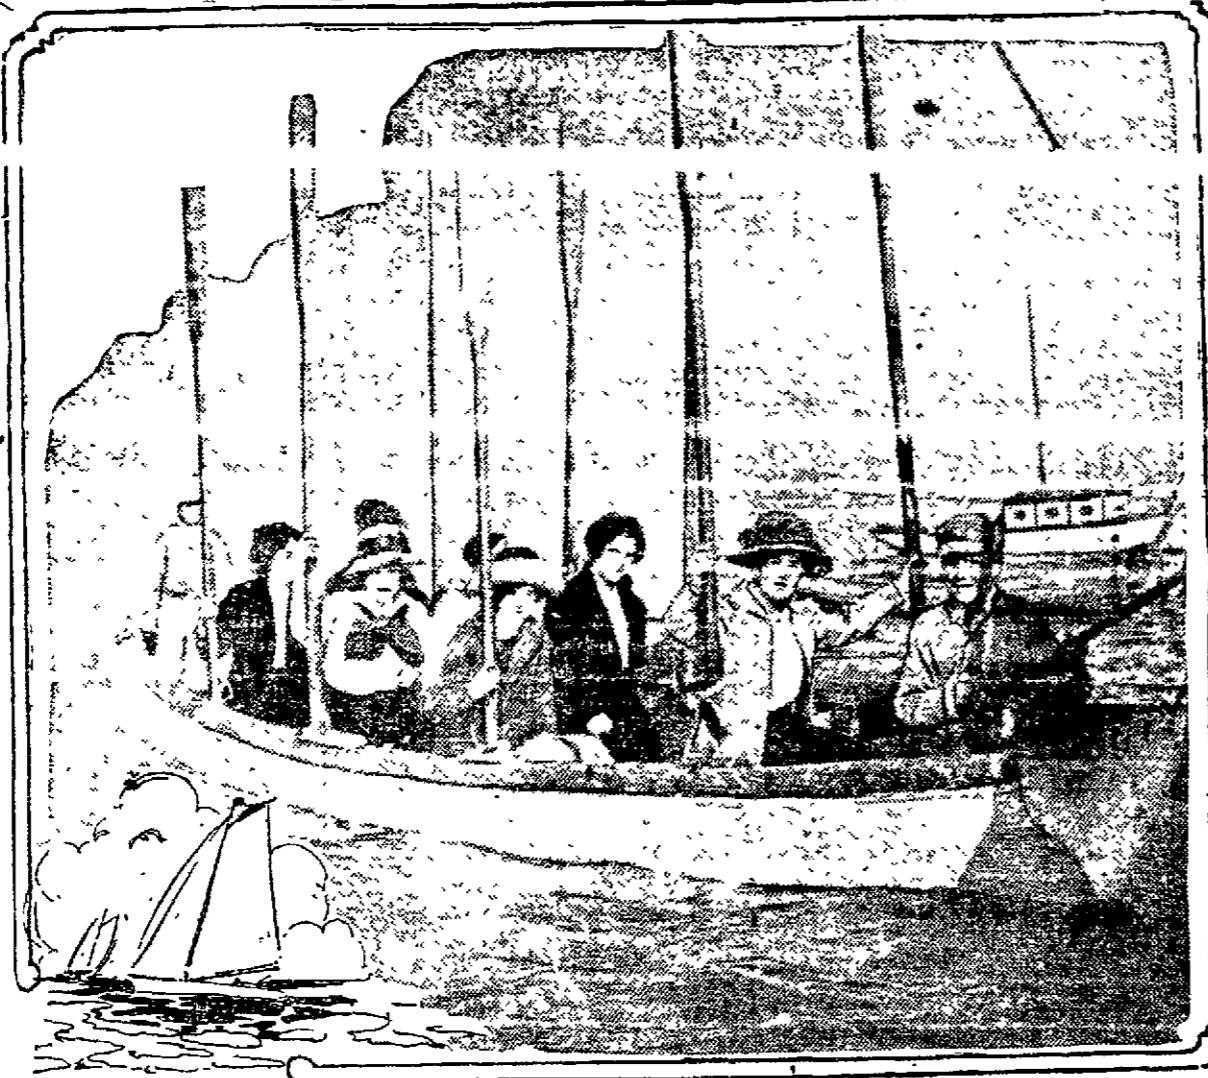

"Why, they're crazy," he exclaimed. "I'm not Ellis. I never used that alias and my father is living in Spokane, not Los Angeles. The only aliases I ever used began with the letter B. If they look at the register of the Hotel Lankershires in Los Angeles they'll find that I was registered there under my right name as Brokaw, and the newspaper clippings of that date will give me my right name, too."

Brokaw was arrested here on the street. He was living at one of the most fashionable houses in the city and concurring bills which he had no money to pay.

MOVED TO RICHMOND.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—Police records examined today show that Joseph Ellis, the young man wanted for the murder of Joseph Schlesky, a clothing merchant, in Indianapolis, formerly lived in this city with his father, who maintained a tailoring establishment until he moved to Richmond, Va., some time

ALAMEDA GIRLS LEARN TO ROW
DIP OARS WITH STURDY ARMS

SOME OF ALAMEDA'S ROWING GIRLS WHO ARE MAKING AQUATIC HISTORY IN THE WATERS OFF THE ENCINAL CITY SHORE.

LASSIES VOYAGE
TO BAY POINTS

Clubs Take Interest in Sport Inaugurated by Superintendent Gutleben

ALAMEDA, Sept. 25.—Rowing for girls is again to the front in Alameda and with the acquisition of several more boats, donated to the city by the San Francisco Bridge Company, Play Supervisor John Gutleben is again besieged with applications from the girls of the city, the mothers' clubs and churches asking that one or more clubs from each organization may be provided with boats and given instructions. The very latest application received by Gutleben came today when a number of working girls asked that they might be permitted to enjoy the exercise in the evenings.

GO ON CRUISES.

Gutleben has on several occasions taken his girls on rowing cruises across the bay. They have studied the habits of water fowl and the nature of various water vegetation.

Twice have the crews rowed to Hunter's point when great vessels were in the dock and the dock company has always extended every courtesy to the girls, showing them through the ships, explaining the various matters of nautical interest and entertaining them royally.

Following the request of the Lincoln School Mothers' Club to the city council that the council appropriate sufficient money to build a wharf and floats that the boating girls might have better opportunity to enjoy the sport of rowing and that of bathing.

R. C. Hillen and L. R. Saroni yesterday came forward and offered to the city through Gutleben, $1000 for the purpose of building the wharf and float, the only restrictions to the offer being that the money be used entirely in this way, or in some aquatic enterprise.

GOOD OPPORTUNITIES.

"Of playgrounds, we have plenty," Hillen, who is a prominent builder, says, "but the chief attraction to Alameda is the opportunity it offers for marine sports and recreation, the development of the muscles of the boys and girls, and the ennobling influence it will bring through carefully supervised cruises and regattas such as Gutleben is now working on."

"In this Alameda is unique, and it is for this reason that we are desirous of seeing everything done that will encourage the sport of rowing and foster marine activity in this city." And his boys! The play supervisor says he is not neglecting his boys. He has secured a large life boat, also by donation, and as this is offered is to rig it up as a boat. The boys are to be taught how to handle a yacht; how to trim sails and how to get the most out of every aquatic sport. Boys' rowing crews are to be organized incipiently.

The boats that are now owned by the city have been acquired by Gutleben through his own efforts and without the cost of a cent to the municipality.

WANTS ORDINANCE AGAINST FLIES

President of Alameda Health Board Would Have Legislation Enacted.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 25.—Dr. J. A. Riley, president of the Board of Health, declared today that he is endeavoring to have the city council take immediate action in regard to the "fly" ordinance which was recommended by the health board several weeks ago. Dr. Riley says that the flies are becoming more numerous than ever and that it is necessary to pass stringent regulations in order to cope with the pests.

"Ordinances similar to the measure we have recommended," said Dr. Riley, "are in effect in many other cities. And I believe that Oakland should have the same restrictions. I hope that the city council will pass upon the ordinance at once. The flies are becoming a pest and should be eliminated."

The council referred the measure to the health board, which has not filed a report as yet.
